

USSF North Carolina Arbiter Referee Assignment Site

How to log on to Arbiter

Before signing on to the site

- Before attempting to sign on to the USSF North Carolina Referee Assignment Site be sure to do the following:
- Set your internet browser to accept “cookies” from the arbiter site which is www.thearbiter.net
- Be sure that you have allowed pop ups from the arbiter site.

Email Addresses

- The arbiter system uses your email address as a unique identifier. So to use it you cannot share an email address with another arbiter referee. If you did not list an email address in your last USSF registration NCSRA assigned you a non-working email consisting of your FirstnameLastname@ncsra.org.

Shared Email Addresses

- For those NCSRA referees who on their USSF registration listed an email address shared by another referee, a non-working email consisting of the shared email plus a 1, or a 2, or a 3, depending on how many referees shared the email address, was created. I.e. Smithfamily@yahoo.com, Smithfamily1@yahoo.com, etc.

New Arbiter User Signing on the First Time

- To sign on the first time to the USSF North Carolina Arbiter site you should enter the email address used on your USSF registration, or the assigned non-working one described in the previous slide. For your password you should use your last name, in all lower case letters, including any jr., iii, etc.

Changing Your Initial Password

- After signing on the first time you will be asked to immediately create a new password. If you forget your password you can have it emailed to you by entering your email address at the login and then clicking on the forgot password link. (This only works if you have a working email address in Arbiter).

Existing Arbiter User Signing In to USSF North Carolina Group

- If you are already an Arbiter user in another group, say TISOA, CASL, or French Broad, you will be asked to “join” the USSF North Carolina Group the first time you sign in. Once you do this your assignments and calendar for all joined Arbiter groups will be displayed to you.

Arbiter Log In Screen

Log in to the group you choose by clicking on the glasses icon.

Arbiter Groups Listed

- As you can see from the previous slide an official may have several Arbiter Groups to which he or she belongs and in several capacities. Most officials will have only one or two groups and they will belong to those groups as officials, chiefly as referees or assessors.

Select the Group to Sign In

- Once at the Group selection screen a referee should click on the glasses icon on the far right of the screen beside the Arbiter Group you wish to enter.
- If you select the USSF North Carolina Site as an official you will see the Start Page for Group #102762.
- But first we need to cover some basics

Arbiter Standard Functions & Symbols

- Before proceeding we will review some of the standard functions of the Arbiter site.
- Arbiter uses standard link and symbol designations throughout the program.
- Whenever you see these link and symbol designations you will know that they always operate consistently.

On any page where you see the NCSRA logo displayed at the top you can click on that and the NCSRA web site will open.

Clicking on start page will always return you to your Arbiter home page.

If you belong to more than one arbiter group you can switch between groups by clicking on switch accounts.

The screenshot shows the top navigation bar of the NCSRA website. It includes links for 'Start Page', 'Switch Accounts', 'Comment', 'Help', and 'Sign Out'. Below the navigation bar is a row of logos: 'The Arbiter .NET', a small image of a soccer field, 'NCSRA', and two instances of 'Honig's WHISTLE STOP' logos. A tooltip 'Honigs Whistle Stop' is visible over the second instance. Below the logos is a green bar with the text 'USSF North Carolina (Group 102762) - Paul James (Assigner)'. Below that is a yellow bar with 'Assigning Paul James' and a small 'A' logo. At the bottom, there are green bars for 'Games', 'Announcements', and 'Special Notices'. The 'Special Notices' bar includes the text 'Arbiter Address: 6720 South 700'.
